

Scheer, Nemesis

Please say something,
Anything.
Please say anything at all.
The silence is hurting me more than,
Anything you've said,
Before.

I wish you'd see yourself.
Just look inside yourself.
It makes me angry to see,
To see you waste yourself.

I can't help this feeling,
Something has to break.
The burden will push me from you
The deeper you lie
You're safe.

Say something,
Say something.

I wish you'd see yourself,
Just look inside yourself.
It makes me angry to see,
To see you waste yourself.

I could make you suffer,
I could make you crawl.
Your problems are really my fault.
Your problems aren't anything,
At all.

I wish you'd see yourself,
Just look inside yourself.
It makes me angry to see,
To see you waste yourself.
