

Schelmish, Hunter

You think you are safe wrapped in this night and space hidden without the sun you are the hunted one running away from me you think you are free with just one step wrong that freedom it will be gone

If you want it, you might make it, you might get away

I can hear your heart beat
I can smell your fear
I know when you're far away
I know when you're near
if you run to ground
doesn't matter, you'll always be found
I am the chosen one
I am the only one the hunter

Can taste you on my tongue very soon this hunt'll be done the prey will never win the hunter is always king

You won't make it , you can't take it, you can't get away

I can hear your heart beat
I can smell your fear
I know when you're near
doesn't matter, you'll always be found
I am the chosen one

And through the trees I can see your blood is red and you're not dead keep running you're not free keep running far away from me

I can hear your heart beat
I can smell your fear
I know you're not far away
I know that you're near I can see your face your terror is the thrill of my chase
I am the chosen one
