

Schiller, Forever

I'd die a thousand deaths I'd give a thousand breaths and sacrifice the rest
to be near you

I'd pay the ransom sum
or lie to anyone I'd do what is undone
to be near you

But you're not here
you are gone
you're not here
You've moved on forever

I know the angel's face that caused my fall from grace and left this hollow space that I run through

'cause you're not here
you are gone
you're not here
You've moved on

But I'm still here
you are gone
I'm still here
you've moved on
forever
