

Schiller, Tired Of Being Alone

Once , you dreamed of me Twice, you wished that i'd pull you out let me be the one
please understand me
how i am
you chose your life , and put me down still you don't understand

Tired of being alone

what you have dreamed
is not what i am
so far
let me be the one
please understand me
how i am
but i don't want , to walk alone I need your hands to warm my soul

Tired of being alone
Tired of being alone

I will do my best to become your love I'll try to fill the emptyness
in our hearts
oh so tired of being alone

Tired of being alone
I want to feel , I need to fall in love with you Tired of being alone
