Schiller, Tired Of Being Alone

Once , you dreamed of me Twice, you wished that i'd pull you out let me be the one please understand me how i am you chose your life , and put me down still you don't understand

Tired of being alone

what you have dreamed is not what i am so far let me be the one please understand me how i am but i don't want , to walk alone I need your hands to warm my soul

Tired of being alone Tired of being alone

I will do my best to become your love I'll try to fill the emptyness in our hearts oh so tired of being alone

Tired of being alone I want to feel , I need to fall in love with you Tired of being alone
