

Schism, Messing With My Best Friends Girlfriend

She said "can we go for a ride in your car?",
It wasn't that late so we went to a bar,
We both had a drink and we started to dance,
Then she put her hands down my pants,

So what could I do?
She came to me out of the blue,
I think I'd be dead if he knew,
I just can't believe that it's true,

I'm messing with my best friends girlfriend,
Messing with my best friends girlfriend,
Messing with my best friends girlfriend,
Messing with my best friends girl,
Messing with my best friends,

I tried saying "no" but it sounded like "yes",
I couldn't think straight when she took off her dress,
The next thing I knew we were both in her bed,
I guess it was something she said,

So what could I do?
She came to me out of the blue,
I think I'd be dead if he knew,
I just can't believe that it's true,

I'm messing with my best friends girlfriend,
Messing with my best friends girlfriend,
Messing with my best friends girlfriend,
Messing with my best friends girl,
Messing with my best friends,

She showed me something that I should've never seen,
She took me places that I should've never been,
She gave me something that I should've never took,
I'll tell you something, boy it's worth a second look,
Yeah,

I know that it's wrong,
And I know that it's bad,
I can't tell a lie,
She's the best that I've had,
And when she stands close,
I go weak at the knees,
Will somebody help me please?

So what could I do?
She came to me out of the blue,
I think I'd be dead if he knew,
I just can't believe that it's true,

I'm messing with my best friends girlfriend,
Messing with my best friends girlfriend,
Messing with my best friends girlfriend,
Messing with my best friends girl,
Messing with my best friends girl,
Messing with my best friends girl,
Messing with my best friends girl,
Messing with my best friends girl,
Messing with my best friends girl,
Messing with my best friends girl,
