

School For The Dead, The Title Song

Earn, earn
You need money to burn
If you stare at the clock you might see it turn
If you want to you can leave
If you want to you can leave and never return

Turn
You've got lessons to learn
The quieter you get, the more we're concerned
That you'll want to, that you'll leave
If you want to you can leave and never return

Why do I feel like you'll never return
Why does it seem like you'll never return

Wait, wait
You've got tables to hate
You get up too early, you get in too late
If you want to you can leave
If you want to you can leave and never return

Why do I feel like you'll never return
Why does it seem like you'll never return

Go, go
It's the new you
The new you
Go, go
It's the new you
The new you
What do you want it to be?

Run, run
You're new life's begun
It's colored in greens, it's lit by the sun
If you want to you can leave
If you want to you can leave and never return

Why do I feel like you'll never return
