

Scoffers, Words

I could fly I could stop the time
I could break the world destroy everything
I could cry fall into madness
I could die make the earth fly apart

But it`s only words, but it`s only words
But it`s only words why it`s only words
Why it`s only words, why it`s only words
Why it`s only words what I get from you

I could show you this bitch inside me
I could let you to know my every name
I could stop this words that come out of your mouth
I know you`re better than anyone

You give me only words
You give me only words
You give me only words why it`s only words
Why it`s only words why it`s only words
what I get from you

You were in my private mess
You were so deeply involved
You know every part of me
You know I`m a little fucked up

But it`s only words, but it`s only words
But it`s only words why it`s only words
Why it`s only words, why it`s only words
Why it`s only words what I get from you
