Scooter, See Me, Feel Me

Alright, that's what happens if you give it gotta life - gotta live it get with the crew and time to get with it people call me ice, ain't another also - ran I'm the dan, with a tan, I got the masterplan ahead of the game like in Japan banging up like the bassman, coming up

You'll receive what's coming to you everyone else's gonna get theirs too ain't no saint, I cannot dispute everyone will meet their moment of truth my flow stays fresh yall can move with it I pierce your soul like a five point picket lyrical badness and madness still wicked all those girls who love ice, just lick it

The Horseman says :
You can't please anyone so please yourself
