Scorpions, Money And Fame

(Matthias Jabs, Herman Rarebell)

You know nothing about loving You lost somewhere down the line You know nothing about giving You should draw the line

You keep looking out for something Something you're never gonna find When will, will you show your feelings You will lose your mind

Who's to blame my love You play a dangerous game Who's to blame my love All you want is money and fame

You play, play with emotions You need, need a stepping stone You're out, out for sensations Don't you, don't you feel alone

Who's to blame my love You play a dangerous game Who's to blame my love All you want is money and fame

Who's to blame my love You play a dangerous game Who's to blame my love All you want is money and fame

Money and fame Money and fame Money and fame Money and fame Money and fame Money and fame Money and fame
