

Scott Edgar And The Universe, Under A Hotel Room Moon

You might be wearing slightly too much make up
I might be a bit older than you think
You leave first, four-oh-three
I'll meet you there, here, take the key
Don't forget to bring something else to drink

You look so fine in the evening
For what you are receiving
Be ki-i-ine if it's over too soon
After that you'll be leaving, I gotta get my sleepin'
Be mi-i-ine under a hotel room moon

Oh-oh-oh

Let's not waste our time writing down phone-numbers
You and I don't go for all that stuff
Someone else cleans the sheets
The beds come with complimentary treats
Can't you knowing my name be enough?

You look so fine in the evening
For what you are receiving
Be ki-i-ine if it's over too soon
After that you'll be leaving, I gotta get my sleepin'
Be mi-i-ine under a hotel room moon

Oh-oh-oh

Ya look so fine in the evenin'
Be mine, be mine...
After that you'll be leaving "with a pri-i-ime"
I never would deceive you
"It's you or it's the previews, it's a crime"

And if it's over too soon,
Come and see me I'll receive you
I'll love you and I'll leave you behind
Under a hotel room moon
Oh-oh-oh
Under a hotel room moon
Oh-oh-oh
Under a hotel room moon
