Scott Stapp, Let Me Go

Tell me friend is this forgiving Tell me friend are you believing Tell me friend if it's worth the fight

So please let me go So please let me go Let me go

What's the use of our deceiving What's the use so stop retreating We are lost and all our hope is gone

So please let me go So please let me go Let me go

So please let me go So please let me go Let me go

Once a boy I was forgiven Now a man I'm lucky living Always know our memories will live on

We'll live on We'll live on We'll live on We'll live on

So please let me go So please let me go Let me go

So please let me go So please let me go Let me go Let me go
