

Scott Stapp, Purpose for Pain

I wait in the dark
The whisper remains
I hide, lying awake

Because I know how it ends
In circles of hell
The weight of the world
Even in my dreams
I can't escape from myself

I shut every door
But [?]
I fought the devil and he won

There's gotta be more
'Cause this life is insane
Gotta turn this around
And find the purpose for pain
There's so much to lose
Yeah there's so much at stake
Gotta turn this around
And find the purpose for pain
The purpose for pain

Fell into the night
From the abyss
Screamed so many nights
Not going out like this

I shut every door
But [?]
I fought the devil and he won

There's gotta be more
'Cause this life is insane
Gotta turn this around
And find the purpose for pain
There's so much to lose
Yeah there's so much at stake
Gotta turn this around
And find the purpose for pain
The purpose for pain

Yeah
There's purpose for this pain
There's a purpose for this pain
There's a purpose for pain

There's gotta be more
Gotta turn this around
And find the purpose for pain
There's so much to lose
Gotta turn this around
