

Scott Walker, Comin' Home

Well today I'm gonna get a letter from my baby air mail special and I don't mean maybe.

This is gonna be the last letter, 'cos I know I'm comin' home

Well she's so sweet from the bottom of her feet to the top of her head,

the things she says, just knocks me dead.

This is gonna be the last letter, 'cos I know I'm comin' home

We said goodbye, I saw you cry
but now I'm waiting for you.

Let's don't turn back the time
and hurt this heart of mine

I just can't stand if we do.

Well it's gonna be better when I get your letter.

Never, never cry 'cos I wont say goodbye.

This is gonna be the last letter, 'cos I know I'm comin' home

We said goodbye, I saw you cry

but now I'm waiting for you.

Let's don't turn back the time
and hurt this heart of mine

I just can't stand if we do.

Well it's gonna be better when I read your letter.

Never, never cry 'cos I wont say goodbye.

This is gonna be the last letter, 'cos I know I'm comin' home

This is gonna be the last letter, 'cos I know I'm comin' home

This is gonna be the last letter, 'cos I know I'm comin' home
