

Scott Walker, When I Kiss You Goodnite

When i kiss goodnight tonight and I'll go home and dream.
It'll be so sweet to think of you 'cos you're my teenage queen.
I hoped you liked the sodas and the show, I guess that they're alright,
but my night just wont be complete 'til I kiss you goodnight.

I dreamed the whole week through, waiting to be with you, guess you know it's true, dating it all I wanna do.
The stars above shine oh so bright as we near your front door,
and kissing you will be so nice, no one could ask for more.

I hope you feel the same as me when I hold you tight
you know you make my life complete when I kiss you goodnight.
