

Scott Weiland, Lazy Divey

They all just looked away
Who got the meaning
Must be a bigger man in those shoes
To keep the circus paid
With beans they're eating
Must be a woman in those shoes
Mares eat oats
And does eat oats
And little lambs eat ivy
Killed the ivy too,
Wouldn't you?
(Mairzy doats
And dozy doats
And liddle lamzy divey
A kiddley divey too,
Wouldn't you?)
Staring at the city
Wonder picking at the window spent on overdrive
Keep a little secret for the promise
So ya come and got us half the life
Lying on the floor,
Medicate a little more
Sing and dance some time
