

Scott Weiland, Where's The Man

where's your man?
he's lost and gone again
what is your name?
the name behind the shame
where's the cup?
it was filled, now broken up
where's your man?
he's lost and gone again
as i get behind the wheel again pray to live a million years you know i lied, but if it makes you glad i'll tell you what you want to hear
