

Scotty Don't, What I Need

I could tell a lie to you to hide what's on my mind
Maybe I'll keep runnin' cause it's me I just can't find
I gotta shake this runaround that's keeping my head low
Looking down ain't what I need that ain't the way I go

No, that ain't what I need

In a few years it won't matter much what's buggin' me today
Cause time is an eraser that just washes life away
And in the end the ups and downs are what we call our own
The glory and the misery
The conquered and unknown

That ain't what I need
That ain't what I need
That ain't what I, that ain't what you need
To make me bleed my blood that's runnin' down the drain

I could say goodbye to you and that'd be just fine
Maybe I'd keep running but I'd still be left behind
I'm dedicating this one to the answers I don't know
I'm sorry it can't be this way but this time I have to go

That ain't what I need
That ain't what I need
That ain't what I, that ain't what you need
To make me bleed my blood that's runnin' down the drain
