

Scout Niblett, Pom Poms

Whatever you wanna say, you can say it to me
Whatever you wanna be, you can be it
Whoever you wanna love, you can love 'em
Right now

Does anybody know a cute girl with some pom poms?
Does anybody know a cute girl with some pom poms?
'Cause everybody needs someone to spell out their name, yeah
'Cause everybody needs someone to spell out their name
In a little song

So please, please, please just send her along
Please, please, please just send her along
To cheer me on, cheer me up, cheer me on, cheer me on
To cheer me on, cheer me up, cheer me on, cheer me on
In a little song

Does anybody know a cute girl with some pom poms?
Does anybody know a cute girl with some pom poms?
'Cause everybody needs someone to spell out their name, yeah
'Cause everybody needs someone to spell out their name
In a little song

So please, please, please just send her along
Please, please, please just send her along
To cheer me on, cheer me up, cheer me on, cheer me on
To cheer me on, cheer me up, cheer me on, cheer me on
In a little song
