

Scouting For Girls, Heartbeat

Am I alone in your heart?
Have I hope with your heart?
She's such a teaser, she's such a star

Give me a reason or gimme a chance

Am I alone in your heart, or am I alone...?
It tears me apart.
Am I alone?

Doing all I can do, just to be close to you.
Every time that we meet, I skip a heartbeat.

Always up for a laugh, she's a pain in the arse
Every time that we meet, I skip a heartbeat.
Give me an evening, or give me a night.

I'll show you the time, of your life
I'll walk you home safe, from the dark
I'll give you my jacket, I'll give you my heart
But she won't come dancing tonight, She's having the time of her life
Am I alone?

Doing all I can do, just to be close to you
Every time that we meet, I skip a heartbeat
Always up for a laugh, she's a pain in the arse
Every time that we meet, I skip a heartbeat

I do love, she does heartbreak
I did love, till she broke my heart
I do love, she does heartbreak
I did love, till she broke my heart
I do love, she does heartbreak
I did love, till she broke my heart
I do love, she does heartbreak
I did love, till she broke my heart

Doing all I can do, just to be close to you
Every time that we meet, I skip a heartbeat
Always up for a laugh, she's a pain in the arse
Every time that we meet, I skip a heartbeat
I skip a heartbeat for you.

Doing all I can do, just to be close to you
Every time that we meet, I skip a heartbeat
Always up for a laugh, she's a pain in the arse
Every time that we meet, I skip a heartbeat
I skip a heartbeat for you
