

Scratchingpost, More Than Like

This guy is four stars
In the night of promise
I hear the music and i go inside
I hold my breath until I... see... you... there

(chorus)
And only in my dreams
Could it ever be real
And only in my dreams
Would you fall for me.

Our eyes meet across
A crowded dance floor
We inch closer till we're side by side
We grab hand 'cause... it's... real.

(chorus)
And only in my dreams
Could this ever be real
And only in my dreams
Would you fall for

And I know
That it was only one night
And I know
It was the best one of my life
And I know
That I'll never have another
And I know
That I'll never have another

(chorus)
And only in my dreams
Could this ever be real
And only in my dreams
Would you ever fall for me

And only in my dreams
And only in my dreams
And only in my dreams
Would you fall for me.
