

Scratchingpost, Rock Past It

When we first got there no one knew us
We were just trying to build a name
When we first got there you look right trough us
And since that day began to change

Oh but didn't I, didn't I, didn't I tell you that
Didn't I, didn't I, didn't I say
Didn't I, didn't I, didn't I warn you that
It would all come true someday

The lines keep getting longer and longer
Waiting hours to see us play
And then one day the man came up to us
And said you kids got what it takes

Oh but didn't I, didn't, I didn't I tell you that
Didn't I, didn't I, didn't I say
Didn't I, didn't I, didn't I warn you that

Kids are here, just rock past it
Where having fun, just rock past it
What's this I hear, just rock past it
Were number one, just rock past it
Yea, rock past it, rock past it, rock past it

And now we can't even remember
How it felt to fight for rock
It seems those day are lost for ever
Because our souls were sold and bought

Oh but didn't I, didn't I, didn't I tell you that
Didn't I, didn't I, didn't I say
Didn't I, didn't I, didn't I warn you that
It would all come true someday
