

Scream Maker, Angel

My heart is burning
Full of your love
And it is waiting
For your call

Can't imagine the life
If you leave me
Can't imagine the sun
To shine on me
I am only a man as long
I'm with you
Here's my heart for thee

Feel it over and over again
Take it no matter how much it takes
Of your love to spread your wings
And fly far away with me

It's so easy to say
But not easy to do
When you promise your love
To be lasting and true
But lord knows
I won't give up on you

And when the night comes
And there's no one there for you
You just have to wake up
It's a nightmare so untrue
'Cause I'm always by your side, girl
Even if world calls me a fool
I'm your man, Angel
And I would die for you

Feel it over and over again
Take it no matter how much it takes
Of your love to spread your wings
And fly far away with me
