

Scream Maker, In the Nest of Serpents

Snake

Is somewhere 'round here
And when I search for answers
He just wakes up all my fear
Fear of dying alone
Destroying a home
Loosing everything
Fear of breaking a promise

One lie
One step
Can bring
The end

Killing me
Same old mistakes
Misleading me
Leaving me senseless/x2

Saw
So many stumbled here
And they never recovered
And their hearts now cold as steel
Why it happened to them
Is it God's masterplan
Seems so cruel to them
It's so hard to believe and...

One lie
One step
Can bring
The end

Killing me.../x4

And everytime I wonder
If I can hide my fear
I see the people staring at me
Like they know everything
But it all is just a dream...

One lie...
Killing me.../x4

Serpents in my head
