

Scream Maker, Wanna Be a Star

Hope the world will know my name
And they will shout it loud when I'm on stage
Girls and women all race and age
I'll have'em anytime of night and day

People will buy everything I release
T-shirts and caps and even cd's
I'll be appearing on many TV's
You eat that crap I'm talking about
You eat this shit

I wanna be
I wanna be
I wanna be a star/x2

Can you imagine the Miss Universe?
Coming to my room and begging for
A little conversation with my little friend
That's how it's gonna be I just have to try

I know I got no talent and no charm
But I don't need that 'cause I got a plan
It takes a little patience and brings some stress
I'll win a talent show by showing my ass

I wanna be
I wanna be
I wanna be a star I wanna be a superstar
