

Scream Silence, Athanasia

you followed me
with reckless gnosis
such a free kingdom of haughtiness (youve) owed me trust
and owed me just lies
such an endless flight
lasting broken
and never dying

discover me
in a splendid glory
where parrots pray
a final rosary
blue bleeding blasts in purple skies with an antic of lies such an odious paradise
.....paradise...paradise

i am your overdose end
and you want to fly
so discover me
and you'll find a place where you never die

and you want to die
so discover me
and you'll find a place
where you can fly
