Scream Silence, Consolation

the more i try
the less i cant heal
you deny
the place where i can breathe cause you're my blaze select me and i'm thy there's no more grace
to trail away with me
i want to be

in your arms
will fade my cry
please let us passionate fade please hold me tight
in your arms
i'm save and i
i'm on the verge of tears and hold you tight

a careful smile can't open up my seals but all the lies was written in a tear behind your veil is vanishing your shine so bare and pale eternal we're assigned in our minds
