

Scream Silence, Eternal Exile

mourn is all you've left behind in me as token vows
you swore to me in past were broken proud ... of your regained elevation bow ... me to your vanity

just let me still cry
don't teach me with lies will forgive if can justify

i'll send you in the eternal exile torn... my confidence in your devotion worn was thrown away without a wee emotion your eloquence has disappointed all my sweet illusions your ignorance

has extinguished my blaze
