Scream Silence, Eternal Exile

mourn .... is all you've left behind in me as token vows .... you swore to me in past were broken proud ... of your regained elevation bow ... me to your vanity just let me still cry don't teach me with lies will forgive if can justify just let me still cry don't teach me with lies i'll send you in the eternal exile torn... my confidence in your devotion worn was thrown away without a wee emotion your eloquence has disappointed all my sweet illusions your ignorance has extinguished my blaze
