

Scream Silence, Seven Tears

how should i know
where's the place where fade the stars
how it feels to live in tide as last

how it feels to dive in the sky
how it feels to escape

i can't slip away.....

just a wee bit to rest take my hand - let us twosome flee home seven tears
melt away by your grace how you sleep warm and safe please agree....

that the cold would pass me by and how shall i sleep on a final lullaby
