

Screaming Monkey Boner, March Of The Midgets

What's that in the distance, oh my gosh, oh my goodness, what could it
possibly be?
It seems like the sound of a thousand midgets coming to town
to take revenge
upon me!

How could they have known, I found one outside my home and now he is my garden gnome?

I'm not a prejudice or racist, it's just when I see a midget,
I loose control!

(chorus)

I hate circus midgets, I hate circus midgets, I hate them and they hate me!

I hate circus midgets, I hate circus midgets, I hate them,
yes indeed!

Break it down.
