

Screaming Monkey Boner, Watch Me Die

White collar criminals control our countries
Constrict our airflow and neural pathways
Must resist the strong temptation
To inflict artificial social morays
An invisible gun to every head, same finger on each trigger watch me
Bring the hammer down before the problem gets much bigger

I don't really want to live in a system this complicated
Why are we afraid to die when life is so over-rated
Trapped inside a little box, every turn a man with a frown
An illusion of possibilities, but the only way out is down

So many reasons why, to give suicide a try
Let the whole world watch me die (yeah yeah yeah) x2

I'm going to hell
And I'm taking you with me
So testify
And be extra crispy
