

Screaming Trees, Sworn and broken

Winter's setting in again
And it feels
Like the end is near
Senseless sense and i'm alone
Watchin' the seconds
Passin' by
Come January i swear this world
Won't be the one
That we once lived on
Took an oath
For a promise sworn and broken
All that's gone
Away
When Monday morning you can't wake up
Still dreamin' of
What could've been
Something good has gone and left you
It's another tear
One won't deny
Come January i swear this world
Won't be the one
That we once lived on
Took an oath
Another promise sworn and broken
All that's gone
All that's gone before you've changed
Well Monday morning you don't wake up
Still dreamin' of
What could've been
Something good has gone and left you
It's another tear
One more denial
Come January i swear this world
Won't be the one
That we once lived on
Took an oath
Another promise sworn and broken
All that's gone
All that's gone before
All that's gone before
Has changed
