

Screaming Trees, Traveler

It's a broken morning outside
Go easy on my mind cos you're this dream I'm hanging' on
And I'm trying' to meet the dawn
And the longest way I traveled
From the darkness to the light
Lord it's been a million miles
In these prisons I can't abide
I'm half way here, I'm half way there (repeat)
All along i've been the traveler, yeah
Forever outta time
Forever just unwinds
I see the green beyond the blue
And I'm trying' to make it thru
And the longest way I traveled
From the darkness to the light
Lord it seems a million miles
All my brothers
I can't unbind
I'm half way here, I'm half way there (repeat)
Oh Lord I been the traveler, yeah
It's why the world is cold
Go easy on my soul cos you're this dream I'm hanging on (same as first)
I'm half way here, I'm half way there (repeat 2x's)
All along I been the traveler, yeah
