

Screaming Trees, Wish Bringer

Yeah, come on, it's nice and cozy along
If you'll only look into yourself
And find the time but dear it's past
Pigeonholed behind the canvasses
Shades here like you've never witnessed
Step out of your frightened circle
The gaze of eyes will feel so cold
Where blackness covers all you want to know
Faces turning in upon themselves
Climbing up and falling down from above
It's you I want to give my love
Through colors bending we would see
Reflect the best come back to me
Tell me if you have to be

(chorus)

Whoa I see it
If you're lonely look into yourself
And find the time to fear is past
Pigeonholed behind the canvasses
Shades here like you've never witnessed
(chorus)
