Screaming Trees, Wish Bringer

Yeah, come on, it's nice and cozy along If you'll only look into yourself And find the time but dear it's past Pigeonholed behind the canvasses Shades here like you've never witnessed Step out of your frightened circle The gaze of eyes will feel so cold Where blackness covers all you want to know Faces turning in upon themselves Climbing up and falling down from above It's you I want to give my love Through colors bending we would see Reflect the best come back to me Tell me if you have to be (chorus) Whoa I see it If you're lonely look into yourself And find the time to fear is past Pigeonholed behind the canvasses Shades here like you've never witnessed (chorus)
