

Screw 32, One Time Angels

I've been cheated ran out of angels
Now now does it feel being a zero

I drank and slowly lost my mind
I didn't know but found out in time
The pieces gone but forced to play
Forced to play
I'm setting fire's to burn what's good
Dying slowly all I could
People's passion for me fades away
A hidden plot to end my life
We've all fallen on a knife
Those who knew have gone away
Gone away
Feeling defeated forcing completed
Tack me to the names on the graves
Keepig these promises
Lifts up the darkness
No one can hold me to my end
Sickened insight please once in life
Fallen down just to come up again

We promised all that we could grow
Up together never know
What tomorrow hides away (x2)
