

Seachange, Forty Nights

let me roll in thorns for you baby let me starve myself for you honey forgive me please cos I have sinned let me get away from here back then I was crooked heart anything true just ripped apart

40 days and 40 nights
I will sit here in the desert till its alright
40 days and 40 nights
I will sit here in the dark til I see the light

Been acting like a triptych sweetness 3 people aint easy to love Ive been talking all cryptic lover cracking code aint good for you

40 days and 40 nights
I will sit here in the desert till its alright
40 days and 40 nights
I will sit here in the dark til I see the light
