

Seafood, Easy Path

Keep me satisfied and I'll stay true to you
A promise broken one too many times
Defending all I have to a conspiracy
I'm guilty once again stood in the light

But I am the reason why
There's no one but me this time
And I'll take the easy life... you'll find

Keep me occupied cos my mind is tired
Keep me occupied for a little while
My patience is observed through a shady glass
And losing every trace of you is hard

But I am the reason why
There's no one but me this time
And I'll take the easy life... you'll find

(So, I can't hear you)

I'm guilty, and you know, I can't help myself this time
I'm guilty, and you know, I can't help myself this time
I'm lost you'll find

And I'll always take the easy path
And I'll always take the easy path
And I'll always take the easy path
