

Seals and Crofts, Fire And Vengeance

(lyrics and music by James Seals and Dash Crofts, 1969)
From the album I'LL PLAY FOR YOU (1975).

Outside it looks like vengeance, outside it looks like fire.
But inside it is mercy and inside it is love, love.
Outside it is raining, outside it is cold.
But inside love's explaining something to your soul. Love.
Let me tell 'bout love, when you got love, everybody loves, one another and everything is alright.

Today's a day for planning, a day for you and me.
The changes of tomorrow will surely set us free.
To love, lo, lo, love.
Let me hear you say love, it's alright.

I want you to know, wherever you go. The world is a classroom
Just to teach your soul all about love, love, love.

(sotto voce) Got to live, got to die. Got to give, got to try.
Love, lo, lo, love.
Let me hear you say love, when you got love, everybody loves, one another and everything is alright.
Give me love, sweet love. I gotta have love, love, love, love.
Just a little bit of love.
