

Seals and Crofts, John Wayne

(lyrics by Paul Williams; music by Charles Fox, 1977)

From the album ONE ON ONE (1977).

Do I feel that I'll prove a match to this world? Does Gene Kelly sing in the rain?
Yes I have a mind with a mind of its own, a soul like the soul of John Wayne.
Wagons ho, move 'em out. 'Til the end of the trail, our love will never fail. Wagons ho.

'Til the end of the trail, our love will never fail. Wagons ho.

Don't worry 'cause I wouldn't hurt you, John Wayne.

Do I feel that I'll prove a match to this world? Does Gene Kelly sing in the rain?
Yes I have a mind with a mind of its own, a soul like the soul of John Wayne.
Wagons ho, move 'em out. 'Til the end of the trail, our love will never fail. Wagons ho.

Don't worry 'cause I wouldn't hurt you, John Wayne.