

Seals and Crofts, Million Dollar Horse

(lyrics and music by James Seals and Walter Heath, 1972)
From the album GET CLOSER (1976).

Spend my day just runnin' 'round. Lookin' for some solid ground.
Too many people everywhere. They don't know and they don't care. No.
How I spend my lonely hours, lookin' for some Eiffel Tower.
I'm gonna climb up, oh, so I can see.
Oh, someday and I'll be free. I'll be free.

Chorus: Give me a million dollar horse, that I can ride for free.
I'm gonna ride him all the way, no matter where he might lead.
Give me a million dollar love (give me love), that I can love for free.
I'm gonna love her every day, no matter who she might be.

You may not see me hangin' round. I may not stay in this old town.
Too many doorways have been closed. In my face, now where's my place.
I need someone to hold my hand. Just someone who understands.
They don't have to love me, no, just be my friend.
Open up and let me in. Won't you let me in.
(chorus)
