

Seals and Crofts, Nobody Gets Over Lovin' You

(lyrics by James Seals; music by James Seals and Dash Crofts, 1978)
From the album TAKIN' IT EASY (1978).

Nobody gets over lovin' you. But if I do I'll never believe again, and
Nobody gets over lovin' you. But I'm going to and I'll never belong to anyone.

O! magic feelin' swept me off my feet.
You taught me the good times, baby. You brought me from the street.
You gave me a reason, sweet resurrection, to believe.
You were perfection. It was the times, sweet dissertation [?], I chose you.
Sweet degradation, I loved you so and

Nobody gets over lovin' you. But if I do I'll never believe again, and
Nobody gets over lovin' you. But I'm going to and I'll never belong to anyone.
Nobody gets over lovin' you, lovin' you. I thought it would be so easy, baby.
Nobody gets over lovin' you, lovin' you. Lovin' you, oooo.

(Sweet reservation, great expectation, without a protection).

A promise to be faithful was all the dreams we knew.
You told me that there'd be no other, although there'd been a few.
I saw you in innocence, and sweet reservation. And so I rushed in great expectation.
In your arms without a protection. I loved you without a direction. I worshipped you and

Nobody gets over lovin' you. But if I do I'll never believe again, and
Nobody gets over lovin' you. But I'm going to and I'll never belong to anyone.
Nobody gets over lovin' you, lovin' you. I thought it would be so easy, baby.
Nobody gets over lovin' you, lovin' you. Lovin' you, oooo.
Nobody gets over lovin' you, lovin' you. Nobody gets over lovin' you, lovin' you.
