

Seals & Crofts, Paint You

(Music and lyrics by James Seals, 2003)

Sit down on the marble floor. Strike that pose for me once more.
Let the time stand still while I catch my breath.
You reveal your beauty. I will do the rest.

[Chorus:]

I want to paint you in the Northlight.
We can do this together.
I want to paint you in the Northlight.
Keep this moment forever.

Step out on the balcony. Wear the golden earrings.
Make them dance for me. Let the time stand still.
You just be yourself. Now release your emotion. I will do the rest.

[Chorus]

I want to hold you, look into your eyes.
You excite me always. I want to hold you in the Northlight.
Keep you with me always. Reach out, let me see you stare.
Let your hair surrender to your shoulders bare.

[Chorus]
