

Sean Bones, Hit Me Up

See you at the table we can make the breakfast toast to keepin you right close, oh you I see you in my backyard Make your way up the fence the window up and up and cracked to let your self in

If I lost the diamond you'll be the dynamite exposing jewels at night on the dark place and on your expedition you found the good in me dark into the rocks and blew all the dust off

And if I catch you waiting long I pretend and see forget in love to the night and to the wild just don't forget you can hit me up oh
If your feelin alone oh when you needed someone You'll be comin over

Shining like the a razer at the bottom of a wishing well maybe it's the best I felt down here when you always come and guessing drowning in the secret song listen in so close I couldn't tell you moved on

And if I catch you waiting long
to the night and to the wild just don't forget
you can hit me up oh
If you feelin alone when you're needing someone come come on right over oh if you're feeling long long
come come on right over
