

Search The City, Ambulance Chaser

You said just look on the bright side but the bright side looks black and white just one more time, can we scale this fence and scream at the city lights? if we're playing for keeps, you already beat me now i've come undone just so you could stitch me up this damage seems to suit you, if i'm going down then you're going down

this damage seems to suit you, if you're going down then i'll go down with you this red wine by poolside, we'll toast to the bitter end and the best mistake of our lives. they've got a name for you where i come from you keep making a mess and turning heads and the worst part is you know it

this damage seems to suit you,
this damage seems to suit you, if you're going down then i'll go down the haunting, the kind that i never saw coming are you haunting me?

you're the ghost that's digging my grace i've got a gut feeling can anybody hear me?
got a gut feeling that you will be the death of me if i go down, then you're going down it's not what you said it's just the way you said it it's not what you said, but i can't forget this

this damage seems to suit you,
this damage seems to suit you, if you're going down
then i'll go down

this damage seems to suit you, if you're going down then i'll go down with you
