

Search The City, The Streetlight Diaries

Street lights carry me home tonight
And this will be the last time that I ever make this drive
We haven't talked in days
And it's clear what you are trying to say
Things are changing and you keep running away
Street lights carry me home tonight
And this will be the last time that I ever make this drive

It was the best it's ever been
But all good things must come to an end
And I'll take one last breath tonight
And watch these headlights pass you by

I can't breath with this burning in my chest
And you've got a history on your breath
That tells of scandals and secrets
I've got reasons for this

You've got heart shapes in ink
Yeah, you wear it on your sleeve
You're so the one-liner
I'm such the critic
We've all been cynics once in our lives
You talk about the hard times
Like you've had such a hard life
Should I be impressed, with how easy you undressed?

It was the best it's ever been
But all good things must come to an end
And I'll take one last breath tonight
And watch these headlights pass you by

I can't breath with this burning in my chest
And you've got a history on your breath
That tells of scandals and secrets
I've got reasons for this
I can't breath with this burning in my chest
And you've got a history on your breath
That tells of scandals and secrets
I've got reasons for this

The truth hurts and you're killing me

I can't breath with this burning in my chest
And you've got a history on your breath
That tells of scandals and secrets
I've got reasons for this
I can't breath with this burning in my chest
And you've got a history on your breath
That tells of scandals and secrets
I've got reasons for this
