

Search The City, To The Moon For All I Care

Don't hold me down
I'm not supposed to feel like i've been holding on for something else i kept my feet on the ground, too scared to see how far this could take me but if i ever leave the ground, there'd be nowhere to go but down i'll take these chances just like the way you took a chance on me i don't have any answers but i've been places and i've seen things

i love the way i said goodbye this is my exit and your time to shine so let me go, stop the search cause i found what I'm looking for just like my favorite scene from my favorite movie the world was spinning underneath my feet but this ain't no Hollywood ending tell me about my future cause i already know my past let's make up for all the time we've missed so let's just get this over with this is just one more mistake i have to live with so please forgive the escape from the world i hate

i'll take these chances just like the way you took a chance on me
i don't have any answers but i've been places and i've seen things i've been places and i've seen things

just like my favorite scene from my favorite movie

blame it on me, just blame it on me don't you know I'm coming clean, yeah i'll take the heat oh you're just about as honest as a liar could ever be

just like my favorite scene from my favorite movie
