

Sebadoh, Brand New Love

Restless eyes close maybe it'll go away please rest tomorrow, bring a satisfied day.
The restless urge of love that's worth burning for surely it's that one concern love to give you more.
Any thought could be the beginning of a brand new tangled web your spinning, anyone could be a brand new love.
Any tie that holds can be broken, tear your bitter world to the open,
anyone can be a brand new love.
You won't be the first your twisted change is normal gossip dirt whisper to the nodding head thrilled you fell apart instead of them but they will cause any hope for love could be killed If you need a different face it's definitely time to destroy this place.
Any thought could be the beginning of a brand new tangled web your spinning,
anyone could be a brand new love.
Follow what you feel you alone decide what's real
anyone can be a brand new love.
Anyone can be a brand new love.
