

Sebadoh, I Believe In Fate

Sun's rising up; it makes my head just spin
'Cuz Lord God only knows what state she's living in Here's to you, baby, have a beautiful day
'Cuz the time is surely close when you'll be heading my way
I believe in fate
'Cuz fate believes in me
Some girl I don't know is waiting to marry me
And I've been stewin' in a place just short of hell
Is the woman soon to love me alive and well?
God sent me a dream and it's the woman of my heart
My future girl is walking healthy
Prime to play the part
I believe in fate
'Cuz fate believes in me
Some girl I don't know is waiting to marry me
Soon we'll be together and maybe even touch each other
Pretend that it's forever
And then proceed to crush each other
I believe in fate
'Cuz fate believes in me
Some girl I don't know is waiting to marry me (X3)
